

River Stories I

Price: $17.00

Short Description

The journey begins with the geological history of the river, a time line that puts the historical layers in perspective.

Description

The journey begins with the geological history of the river, a time line that puts the historical layers in perspective. It includes "Grandma Turtle" and "Pebone and Seguin," stories from the American Indians of the river region. There are tales from the sod busting prairie farmers, pioneer missionary Peter Cartwright, and several short river stories from the life of Abraham Lincoln.

Listen to Spirit of the Wind from River Stories I.
